24.3 Rome Trades Glassware for Silk
1. How did the Romans first learn about silk?
   The Romans first learned about silk during a ____________ near the ______________ River.

2. What product could the Romans trade that was unknown to the Chinese?
   A Roman _______________ _______________ that was unknown to the Chinese was ______________.

24.5 The Western Silk Road
1. List two dangers of traveling the western part of the Silk Road.
   Dangers included narrow and difficult ________________, the lack of ______________ high in the mountains, and the threat of
   ______________ and ______________ in the desert.

2. List two products from Egypt, Arabia, and Persian traded on the Silk Road. Egypt, Arabia, and Persia traded ________________,
   ________________, and carpets.

3. Why did the Roman emperor stop men from wearing silk?
   The Roman emperor stopped men from wearing silk because he wanted to ______________ the amount of gold that was ______________ out of his empire.

24.4 The Eastern Silk Road
1. List two dangers of traveling the eastern part of the Silk Road.
   Dangers included ________________, sandstorms, and
   ________________.

2. List two products China sent to the West.
   China sent ________________, ________________, jewelry,
   cast-iron products, and decorative boxes to the West.
3. List three products Central Asia traded on the Silk Road.
   Central Asia traded ________________, jade,
   ________________, and ________________.

4. List three products from India that were traded on the Silk Road.
   India traded ________________, ________________, pearls,
   and ________________.

24.2 The Opening of the Silk Road
1. List three things Zhang Qian brought back to China after his journey to Central Asia.
   Three things Zhang Qian brought back to China were a more powerful
   ________________, ________________, and ________________ of such places as Persia, Syria, India, and Rome.

2. What product could China trade that was unknown to the West?
   The product China could trade that was unknown to the West was
   ________________

24.6 Cultural Exchanges Along the Silk Road
1. List three plants that China learned about as a result of trade on the Silk Road.
   China learned about ________________, ________________,
   ________________, figs, pomegranates, walnuts, chives, sesame,
   and coriander.

2. List three plants the West learned about as a result of trade on the Silk Road.
   The West learned about ________________, azaleas, chrysanthemums, peonies, camellias, ________________,
   ________________, and peaches.

3. What new religion entered China by way of the Silk Road?
   ________________ entered China by way of the Silk Road.